

Get Your Read On!

BOOK CLUB

The Get Your Read On! Book Club (GYRO) is a school-wide reading club and contest that allows you to engage your brain and activate your imagination through the world of books. There are no restrictions on what you can read, how you read (print or audio), or the amount you read. Every one hundred pages you read counts as one book so use your math skills to round up. To enter the book you've read into the contest, just fill out the "Prove It" form and return it to the library or to the office. Extra book club forms can be found in the library and in the office. At the end of the school year, the "Prove It" forms will be tabulated and prizes will be awarded to successful participants.

Here's how it works:

Step 1: Check out a book from the library or find another route to get your hands on a book.

Step 2: Read the book.

Step 3: Record the book on your "My GYRO Reading List" sheet to keep track of what you've read.

Step 4: Fill out the "GYRO Prove It" form and turn it in to the library or to the office.

Step 5: Start reading another book!
